

Effective December 7, 2006, Proposition 103 makes English the official language of the state and its political subdivisions.

Until such time as all Arizona Department of Racing forms and signage posted in a foreign language can be updated, please be advised that:

“All documents in a foreign language are a translation from original text written in English. These translations are unofficial and are not binding on this state or a political subdivision of this state.”

Arizona Department of Racing